

Hamilton Exclusive Gin List

1).Bedrock Gin

40%

Bedrock Gin is inspired by the ruggedly beautiful landscape of the Lake District made with the spring water from Ennerdale in the western Lake District. This premium London dry gin is made using botanicals including juniper, orange, lemon, cinnamon, liquorice, angelica and kiln-dried oak bark from the Lake District. No matter how smooth a gin promises to be, you never expect the sensation to be...well, this. It's honestly as soft as water, bar the cinnamon/cassia tongue lashing. Smooth as silk, with a fiery taste, it's delicious, truly.

Recommended Tonic: Fever Tree Indian Tonic Water

Recommended Garnish: Lemon Zest

2).J.J Whitley Nettle Gin

38.6%

JJ Whitley Nettle Gin has a heavy herbaceous aroma and offers a light, refreshing, zingy kick on the palate, bound together with a gently sweetness. Hendrick's is a gin made oddly as a fabulous antidote to the ordinary. A gin for free-thinking individuals who wish to foster a more curious and unusual planet. No other Gin tastes like Hendrick's because no other Gin is made like it. Handcrafted in Scotland, by the most curious of minds and imaginative spirit, distilled through two different types of stills, a unique blend of eleven botanicals - and an odd but marvellous infusion of rose petal and cucumber. Presented in a small Victorian apothecary style bottle with a cork stopper. It is not for everyone but indulge your curious self or treat someone extraordinary.

Recommended Tonic: Fever Tree Indian Tonic Water

Recommended Garnish: Cucumber

22).Masons Peppered Pear Gin

42%

While Masons likes to keep its botanical recipe a closely-guarded secret, the team has made an exception for this pepped-up expression – rumoured to be a favorite up at the Yorkshire HQ. Along with the Harrogate spring water and usual botanical mix comes a healthy dose of delicate pink peppercorns and juicy conference pears. This is one of just 5,000 bottles, but the team like it so much that they say they might make some more.

Recommended Tonic: Fever Tree Indian Tonic Water

Recommended Garnish: Kiwi

23).Martin Miller's Dry Gin

Recommended Tonic: Fever Tree Mediterranean Tonic

Recommended Garnish: Slice of Orange

26).Oxley London Dry Gin

47%

Oxley Gin, one of the first gins credited in using the cold (vacuum) distillation technique, is a must-try in the super premium gin category. To create a batch, there is a 15-hour botanical maceration period, then the spirit is distilled (a process that typically lasts about 5-6 hours) before being watered down and bottled at 47% ABV. So, alongside juniper and grapefruit, lemon and oranges, the other 10 botanicals include meadowsweet, vanilla, aniseed, orris root, liquorice root, cocoa, grains of paradise, cassia bark, nutmeg and coriander. The result means that Oxley Gin is bright and clear to taste.

29).Whitley Neill Dry Gin

43%

Whitley Neill Gin is an award-winning, hand crafted premium London Dry gin. The inspiration of the gin comes from the vivid beauty & mystery of Africa. It is distilled in small batches by Johnny Neill, a direct descendant of Thomas Greenall & the last in a long line of distillers. It is produced in small batches in an antique copper pot still,^[1] and contains two African botanicals — Baobab Fruit and Cape Gooseberries as well as coriander seeds, sweet lemon, sweet orange, angelica root, cassia bark, florentine iris and juniper berries.

Recommended Tonic: Fever Tree Indian Tonic Water

Recommended Garnish: Slice of Orange

30).Tanqueray London Dry Gin

45%

Given that Tanqueray epitomises the London Dry style, it should come as no surprise that it provides a crisp, dry taste. The recipe is a fiercely guarded secret, though it is thought to contain as little as four botanicals. The final spirit is bottled at 45% ABV in the UK, with strong juniper notes pulling through, along with a hint of spice and a dry finish. The lack of citrus botanical makes it slightly drier than some other gins, but coriander adds both piquancy and lemon on the nose. Add a healthy citrus twist in the glass and the gin seems to be made for those who enjoy a G&T with a backbone!

Recommended Tonic: Fever Tree Mediterranean Tonic

Recommended Garnish: Slice of Lime

31).Gordons Pink Gin

37.5%

Launched in 2017, Gordon's Gin Pink is perfect for summer quaffs. Juniper takes a slight step back to make way for refreshing notes of strawberry, raspberry and redcurrant. The recipe was inspired by a Gordon's recipe from all the way back in the 1880s!
